

ONLY 98 MEMBERS ON DELINQUENT LIST

Chamber of Commerce Has 831 in Good Standing.

WILL URGE UNIFIED PUBLIC ACTION

Delegate to a General Civic Meeting to Be Named Tomorrow Night.

Secretary Tom Grant, of the Chamber of Commerce, is preparing to submit some data concerning the membership of that organization at tomorrow night's meeting of the chamber which should prove gratifying.

With a membership of 929, Mr. Grant will show that 831 are in good standing, as regards the payment of dues. There are only ninety-eight delinquents on the chamber's list, and these, it is said, are paying up rapidly.

According to Mr. Grant, the showing is an unusual one, as few organizations with such a large membership can boast of such a small number of delinquents.

The report of the committee of fifteen, appointed to consider a plan whereby concentrated action can be had on public matters by the various citizens' associations of the District, will be made at tomorrow night's meeting.

In this report, the committee will urge that the chamber appoint a delegate and an alternate to attend the general meeting of representatives of citizens' associations, which is to be held on the 16th of this month.

As yet, no candidates have been announced for the position of delegate to this convention. It is believed to be not unlikely that a fight will develop at tomorrow's meeting over the proposition to have the chamber identified with this movement.

The principal opposition to the plan is based upon the grounds that the chamber, being larger than the citizens' associations, should have more than one delegate.

While a number of matters are likely to come up for consideration, it is said that the chamber, in all probability, will discuss the advisability of taking an excursion late in the spring, or during the first part of summer. Last year the excursion was made down the Potomac to Norfolk.

SPORTSMAN'S SHOW EXHIBITS NOTABLE

Display Covering Wide Range Ready for Opening Tonight.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the first sportsman's show ever held in Washington at the Light Infantry Armory, Pennsylvania avenue and Fifteenth street, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The big hall has been tastefully decorated with flags and bunting, and the booths arranged in an attractive manner. Among the exhibits will be what is said to be the most complete display of cameras, kodaks, and photographic paraphernalia ever shown in the United States. All of the leading manufacturers and dealers will be represented.

Practically everything of interest to sportsmen will be shown. Almost unlimited numbers of guns, game birds, camping outfits, motorcycles, canoes, motor boats, and everything pertaining to the different branches of sport will be on exhibition.

Of special interest to motor boat enthusiasts will be the powerful gasoline engine that will be used in the boat that will represent the United States in the international speed boat race this summer.

The engine was built at the works of the Emerson Engine Company in Alexandria, Va., and Washingtonians will have an opportunity to witness the speed trials of the various styles of hulls, as the tests will be made between Alexandria and Marshall Hall.

STAR OF ZEIGFELD REVUE AT EARLY STAGES OF HER CAREER AND NOW

At the Age of Nine Years.

LORD FAUNTLEROY STAR'S FIRST ROLE

Career of Eva Tanguay, Returning in Revue, Begun at Eleven Years.

Eva Tanguay who comes here next week as the star of the Zeigfeld Revue, "Follies of 1910," is a Yankee girl, brought up in New England. Her first engagement was at Holyoke, Mass., where she played "Little Lord Fauntleroy" in a stock company.

It was quite by accident that she became a comedienne. While traveling on tour with the Francisco-Redding Company out West she received word that her mother was ill and to come right home. Times were hard in those days for the Tanguay family, her father having died, and when she arrived home she was penniless. Her mother had no money and it was up to Eva to earn some at once. She was in a quandary. So desperate was her plight that she went over to Springfield to a variety house (what is now known as vaudeville) and appeared at an amateur performance, singing songs that she had learned the same day. She won the first prize, which amounted to $5.

ACTUAL VIOLENCE THREATENS BRIAND

Premier's Enemies Bitter
Over His Desertion of Socialism.

PARIS, April 11.—Premier Briand, whom his enemies accuse of deserting Socialism for political preferment, is to take real risks of violence if he persists in taking an active part in the campaign for the election of members of the chamber of deputies, which is to be held April 24.

Yesterday's demonstration against the premier at St. Chamend, when he was saved from personal injury only by the intervention of gendarmes, has convinced the ministry that the large Socialist element keenly resents Briand's change of faith, and the premier is today being urged to keep as much in the background as possible.

LODGES TO CONDUCT DR. OGDEN'S FUNERAL

Wealthy Property Owner and Physician Dies Suddenly.

Delegations from the Meridian Commandery, Golden Cross, and from the Oriental Commandery, of which he was a prominent member, have been appointed to attend the funeral of Dr. D. M. Ogden, a prominent physician and real estate holder of this city, who died suddenly yesterday afternoon, at his residence in Poochast apartments, 1341 East Capitol street.

Services will be held Wednesday afternoon at the family home, the Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Greene, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the family vault at Alexandria, Va. Pallbearers have not yet been selected, but probably will be from the Golden Cross and the Orientals.

Dr. Ogden had been suffering from heart trouble for the last year, but during the last two or three weeks he was apparently much improved, and his sudden death came as a shock to his family and friends.

Dr. Ogden had inherited large real estate holdings from his father and much of his time was taken up in the improvement of these properties. From time to time he added to these, selecting property that by its increase in value thoroughly vindicated his judgment.

Dr. Ogden was twice married; first to a Miss Parkhurst, of Georgetown, to which union two sons were born, and later to a Miss Nellie Gregory, who survives him. Besides his wife and two children, Dr. Ogden also leaves a sister.

TEACHERS ASK MORE PAY.

EVERETT, Mass., April 11.—Because the cost of hats, gowns, and other articles of feminine wearing apparel has so increased that the pay given the teachers is no longer sufficient to support them in the style befitting dignity of their position a number of the women heads of departments in the Everett schools have begun a crusade for a raise in wages.

Overloading The Stomach

Causes Incomplete Digestion, Weakens
The System, and Breeds Dyspepsia.

Trial Package Free.

Gluttony is as vile a sin as drunkenness and its evil results are more terrible and far more rapid. The human system turns into the stomach and alimentary canal from 7 to 35 pounds of digestive fluid every twenty-four hours. Cramp your stomach with food and you exhaust these juices. If your stomach cannot digest the food because it lacks juices to do with, you should either eat less or make more gastric fluids.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain ingredients one grain of which will digest 2,000 grains of food. With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in your stomach the evil effects of overeating are removed, for these little tablets when dissolved stick to the food and digest all the good from it. They won't assault the stomach and leave a mass of decaying undigested food to putrify and irritate the mucous membrane lining. They give greater quantities of gastric fluid, help the intestines enrich the blood, prevent constipation, and glutony, while small, may yet be made less harmful by the use of these tablets.

Every druggist carries them in stock; price 50 cents per box, or send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package free by mail. Address: F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.
